

Parents & Teachers

Do you need ideas, encouragement, and support for teaching or raising a high ability child? Come to our 4th annual forum for parents and educators!

High Ability Children:

Seeking Balance at Home and at School

Featuring a panel of professionals and parents experienced in teaching and raising high ability children.

Thursday, May 7 6:30-8:30 PM

2nd Floor – SAU #37, Manchester School District
286 Commercial Street, Manchester, NH

Fees: Manchester Residents - $5.00/family * Non-Manchester Resident - $15/person, $20/couple
NHAGE members - $10.00 (Membership registration available at event.)

Pre-registration appreciated; walk-ins welcome.

Call 624-6300 x140 or email NHAGED@gmail.com to register.

Directions: From the SOUTH, take 293 to Exit 5 - Granite St. Turn right at lights: *

From the NORTH, take 293 to Exit 5 - Granite St. Turn left at lights: *

* Go across the bridge, then turn left at the next light onto Commercial St.

Look on the left for #286. Manchester School District (SAU #37) is on the 2nd Floor.

This event is sponsored by the Manchester School District LEAP Gifted and Talented program, with Forum speakers and experts from the NH Association for Gifted Education (NHAGE), a statewide organization dedicated to the education of gifted students. Find out more at: www.nhage.org